The Shrine of Baba Farid is one of Pakistan's most important Sufi shrines. The small Shrine of Baba Farid is made of white marble with two doors, one facing east and called the Nūrī Darwāza or 'Gate of Light', and the second facing north called Bahishtī Darwāza, or 'Gate of Paradise'. There is also a long covered corridor.

ABOUT BABA FARID JI

Sheikh Farid abandoned all his traditional worship and started doing service of his Guruji as a prime disciple and also did meditation as directed by his Guru. When his Guruji used to deliver the spiritual discourse, he used to say that Allah (God) is formless and then used to say that the only way to see the God is to do intense meditation.
